NOTES AND COMMENTS.

Brutality.

The Boers appear to be bent upon forcing us into a war, not of conquest but of extermination. If they carry out the threat reported by Reuter and, after the fifteenth instant shoot all Colonials captured in arms we do not see that any other alternative will remain but for our own troops to follow suit and take no prisoners. If matters should come to such a pass, we do not fancy that the war will last much longer. The Boers could not afford to lose their men in this way, for they have no reserves to draw upon, and it would be simply a question of numbers. Those who could put the most men into the field would be bound to win in the end, and there is no doubt that we could keep the game up longer than the Boers. We fancy however, that this will prove to be but an idle boast of Kritzinger or some other bloodthirsty and wrong headed Boer leader. Were such a threat put into effect it would mean that every man engaged had either to fight or die, and we have seen that 'the Boers on several occasions' have had no relish for death at the hands of the British, but have either surrendered or fled. If KRITZINGER, or any other leader puts this threat into practice we earnestly trust that they will be the first to suffer by the retaliatory measures that our own troops would thereby be forced into adopting. people fight like brute beasts they cannot | the charge. expect to have any consideration whatever shown to them, but must be content to be destroyed like vermin wherever they are met

The Sanitary Board.

The speech of Dr. Atkinson at yesterday's meeting of the Sanitary Board shows that he has returned to the Colony with the avowed intention of leaving no stone unturned to put an end to our yearly visitation of plague We hope that the other members of the Board will allow all petty jealousies and little differences of opinion, that in times past have caused a want of unanimity, to be laid aside and will support their President heart and soul. Dr. Atkinson, it must be remembered, is a thoroughly trained scientific man and has had a wide experience of -plague-;-he-is-also-in-favour-of-strongmeasures being adopted and we have already seen what a failure half measures have proved. If the other members will only make up their minds to stand by him in the fight, we really think that something useful may be accomplished, for it is hardly to be imagined that the Government would attempt to put obstructions in the way of a thoroughly unanimous

To the Government we would say, let the Board have a free hand for a year and see what can be done. It has already been demonstrated that no good comes of the dilly dallying which has gone on for so many years, the obstruction put in the way of sensible propositions and the delays occasioned by too much red tape. Let the Board adopt really strong measures and let it see that those measures are carried out without interferance from anyone, and it may have a chance of doing some good. There must of necessity be some discontent caused and expense must be incurred, but if the prosperity of the Colony is to be considered, it is no use to grumble, at the expenditure of a few thousands of dollars or at inconvenience caused to a section or sections of the community. It is far better that some should suffer than that all should be ruined by the obstinacy and the pigheadedness of the few. We wish Dr. ATKINSON every success in the great task which he is about to undertake.

The Chinese Apology.

Looked at from a common sense point of view an analogy from the Emperor of China required. Emperor ina at the nstances it pology had onsible for idors, and infortunate d be inteal view of nature of an apology from the exiled CHAR-LES the Second for the acts of OLIVER CROMWELL.

The Arrest of Krause.

The arrest of KRAUSE, the ex-governor information to the enemy will have, we China. Well done Chamberlain ! In addition to wines of our own imagine, caused a profound sensation at bottling, the following brands, bot- home. We have had too much of this ALTHOUGH the P.W.D. folk have cleared running with the hare and hunting with that in the event of his guilt being proved, no foolish sentiment will be allowed to penalty of his crime. It has become only too patent of late that the Boers look upon don and Oporto, for whom we have us in the light of good natured fools who will accept any promise and are too blind to see that it is broken so soon as our backs happen to be turned. The execution of a few of these men of KRAUSE's kidney who have taken the oath of allegiance and broken it, would not only show that we are not to he trifled with but would, we fancy, cause Mr. STEAD and other traitorous pro-Boers to be a little more circumspect in their actions. It is a great pity that STEAD and a few more of the miserable following cannot be made to stand

They are if anything, more contemptible than he That we are growing too wildly tolerant is demonstrated by the fact that the words Confound their politics, frustrate their knavish tricks," have been dropped from our National Anthem. Too great a con sideration for one's enemies is al mistaken policy, for human nature is no nearer th ideal than it was a hundred years ago.

Prince Chun was received by the German Emperor, who remained seated on his throne. His Majesty beckoned Prince Chun to ap proach, and the latter, bowing thrice, then handed to His Majesty a letter of regrets from the Emperor of China. The Kaiser in a stern speech, replied that he was willing to admit that the Emperor of China held aloof from the crimes that had been com mitted, but the guilt of his advisers was al the greater. He warned Prince Chun that the Chinese Government could not obtain pardon by a mere expiatory mission, but by its future attitude and conformity with the prescriptions of international law and civil-

THE DANGER attending navigation in the Red Sea, owing to the scarcity of lighthouses, has once more been illustrated, on this occasion in the loss of the Numidia, the latest addition to the Anchor Line of steamships. The vessel struck on the Two Brothers Islands, which, although notoriously dangerous, are not provided with a lighthouse.

THE STAMESE GOVERNMENT recently applied to the Japanese Navy Department, for the construction of a warship for Siam. The application was refused, as the regulations of the Japanese Naval Shipbuilding Yards do not allow them to build-vessels except for the Government fo Japan. THE MEMORIALS which have reached the Government of India from various Indian industries likely to be affected by the new-Chinese tariff were forwarded in good time to the Home authorities for consideration, but no official information has yet arrived regarding how the fresh duties will operate in the case of Indian produce. The industry most closely concerned is cotton, for opium is provided for under a special treaty which is unlikely to be affected by the new duties.

STRAITS PAPERS of the 31st ult. say :- A: Government Gasette Extraordinary, published this morning, states that :- Information having been received that a dangerous infectious or contagious disease, namely Cholera, exists at Sourabaya, it is hereby declared by the Honourable the Deputy of the Officer Administering the Government, in exercise of the powers conferred by Rule 3 of the Regulations made by the Governor in Council under "The Quarantine and Prevention of Disease Ordinance XIX of 1886," that the port of Sourabaya is infected.

H.M.S. ALBION was to be at Singapore till Thursday the 5th September. There are still a few residents here, says a Straits paper, who may remember Captain W. W. Hewett as lieutenant. on H.M.S. Imperieuse on her arrival on that station as, flag-ship in 1888. Lieut-Commander Watson of the Lizard was also an officer of the Imperieuse in that Commission. Capt. Hewett has an especial claim? to the regard of this Colony for it was he that in 1888 annexed Christmas Island to the "realm". of the Straits, Settlements, landing with a party of marines and hoisting the flag just before the Imperieuse reached Singapore.

THE CRICKET FESTIVAL which has been fixed to commence on November 11th continuing till the roth, promises to be the best. Hongkong has yet witnessed. Special arrangements are under consideration for the comfort of the public, a matter that in previous years was rather overlooked. The Hungkong Team will play the Shanghai, the Straits Settlements the Hongkong, and the Shanghai the Strains Settlements. If you coine to work this out one sees it might end all equal. However, if there is a winning team that eleven is to play a combined team from the two losing teams. There will be the usual reception to visitors and friends and the week will wind up with a bringuer.

SANITARY BOARD.

A meeting of the Sanitary Board was held yesterday afternoon; there were present:-Dr. Atkinson (Principal Civil Medical Officer), President, (Hon. W. Chatham Acting Director | while loaded with kerosene, and also neglecting of Public Works) Vice-President, Dr. Clark to hoist a red flag. The defendant was fined (Medical Officer of Health), Mr. Lau Chu pak, $15 for each offence or 6 weeks. He went to and Mr. G. A. Woodcock, (Secretary.)

A letter from the Colonial Secretary notifying the appointment of Dr. Atkinson as President of the Board was laid on the table, also the appointment of Mr. G. A. Woodcock as Secretary.

The papers relating to the following matters were laid on the table, details of which we reported yesterday.

The Government's reply to the Board's recommendation re Sanitary improvements. Reply to H.B.M. Consul at Foochow to the effect that bubonic plague was no longer epidemic in Hongkong. A letter of thanks from the Governor to the

A letter from Mr. E. Osborne announcing his absence for three months The report of the Medical Officer of Health on the plague for the first half of the year, seconded by Mr. Chatham was adopted.

The President proposed that a special vote of thanks be accorded Inspector Reidie for his past services, also to Inspectors Rogers, C. W. Brett, Fincher, Knight and Police Inspector

Mr. Chatham seconded and hoped the Go vernment would be able to donate a sum in recognition of these Inspectors' endeavours.

The proposal was adopted. The Government's approval of the erection of two public latrines was laid on the table. The Stanley petition with regard to the Sanitary Board Bye Laws was laid on the table. Papers relating to backs yards with the following minutes were laid on the table :

Dr. Clark minuted:—"I have inspected these houses and find that they will be fairly sanitary when completed: In view of the circumstances of the case I Ithink the Board should waive its right to compel the owner to alter the houses now, so as to meet the recent decision of the Hon. Attorney-General re "Crown streets in the rear of private buildings not counting as-"open spaces in the rear, provided by the owner."

The Acting Director of Public Works minuted :-- " The houses are certainly well situated as regards open space in the rear. I consider it absurd to require the provision of backyards in such cases. What I would like to see would be a restriction in the enormous height of the houses, fronting on such a narrow street. I am in favour of passing them."

Dr. Clark moved that the Board accept the buildings as they now stand, as complying with the Ordinance.

Mr. Chatham seconded, and the motion was Joan' Gomez was charged with assaulting Ip Fan, a vehicle driver, and damaging his ricksha. He was fined $3 and 50 cents for the damage done. Mr Nolan interpreted.

AN ALLEGED FEROCIOUS DOG. 🦠 Sheklo Aproos of the Base Medical Store, Kowloon, charged Mr. J. Wheeley, of Greencroft Villa, Tsim Sha Tsui, with allowing a forocious dog to be at large. He said he was passing the house when a dog rushed out and bit him in the arm; the defendant stated his wife and sister were going out with the children; they heard barking and going out saw three dogs round the defendant. He had had the dog over to years and had never known it to bite anyone without good reason. It was a thoroughly good natured dog.

The summons was dismissed.

UM HO CUM TSO. Mr. J. J. Spooner, Chief Excise Cfficer, charged Tai Loy with making an infernal noise outside his house at 5 30 a.m. The defendant was fined $5.

The Captain of the s.s. Hin Sing charged Osmund, a Manilaman, with deserting the ship. It was the second offence of the like nature and Osmund was sent to gaol for 4 weeks.

DISORDERLY BEHAVIOUR. George Pickup was charged with disorderly behaviour and assaulting the Police. 'He was fined $5 in all.

A DESPERATE CHARACTER.

Wong Ching, a tall and powerfully built coolie, was charged with assaulting H. C. Holloway, or H.M.S. Rambler, and stealing a silver watch valued at $25. The complainant being sworn said, last night about 11.30 p.m. he was walking down Queen's Road to the Canteen. He felt a man's hand round his back. He was put down on the ground and his watch taken from him. It was in his trousers pocket and was snatched from him. He was not exactly sober but could distinctly remember everything.

Kong Un, P.C. 282 said, about 11 p.m. last night he saw defendant knock the complainant down. The defendant then caught him by the neck. He saw him take the watch. He chased the defendant and caught him, when the defendant whipped out a knife and cut his (defen-Papers relative to securing more senior in- dant's) queue off. He then blew his whistle.

The defendant was caught by a Sergeant and a Private of the R.W.F.

The prisoner was sentenced to six month's

HUMAN RODENTS.

Under the above title M. Talamon (of Paris) has contributed to La Medecine Moderne an extremely interesting article. "We know nailbiters," he says, "whom M. Berillon proposes to name 'onychophagists,' and penholder-biters, for whom it has not yet been considered necessary to have recourse to a Greek name. up till noon of the 5th Other Asiatics 35 These two species of rodents have been observed in large numbers among children of both sexes. M. Berillon has shown many of them are in the schools of the city of Paris. He considers that the proportion of little Parisians who are in the habit of gnawing their nails or the ends of their penholders is 24 per cent. There are two distinct species, it appears 1 it is very rare to find those who bite their penholders biting their nails at the same time.

> According to M. Talamon there are also gnawers of hair, who may be-called "pillivorus." The mania of this class may have more serious consequences than those produced by 'onychophagia.' Cases have been known where veritable tumors formed solely of the remains of hair, and masses of hair have been found in the gastric cavity of those addicted to the práctice. An Australian physician, Mr. Saw, has even published a record of a case of appendicitis observed by him in one of these hair gnawers. The appendix contained a calculcus of the size of a pen. It was formed of concentric/layers, the centre of which was occupied by a hair The China Gazette of the 31st ulto., says :-- between four and five millimetres in length, Na Tung, the Chinese Special Apologetic This hair corresponded exactly in color and Envoy to Japan, where he is to express the texture with the mustache of the patient. Under Chinese Government's regrets for its crime of a microscope its identity was absolute. The murdering Mr. Sugiyama, the young Japanese | patient, who was of a very nervous temperachancellor of the Peking Legation last June, ment, had acquired a habit of biting his left Shanghai to-day by the s.s. Moreover the girl had told him what while in the country, last September, she had thus, in her spare moments, eaten an entire fichu in less than a

The habit of gnawing was formed by the girl when she was about '17 years of age in the workroom. She had constantly between her teeth ends of cotton which she first nibbled and then swallowed. When she had no cotton she gnawed her pocket handkerchief or her fichu. She must have cotton or some sort of stuff; it mattered little to her whether cotton or linen. Her stomach appeared to accommodate liself readily to this class of food. Nevertheless, at times, she threw up a large quantity of ends of

THE ONE WAY TO BRING ABOUT PEACE.

"P. S." SPEAKS.

"P. S." the anonymous Boer writer who whilst heaping abuse on Great Britain and all her ways, has had, through the medium of the English Press, some remarkably straight talks with his fellowcountrymen, has a noteworthy letter in the Marning Post. It is the last, he says, he will write on the subject, for he is anxious to proceed, at the earliest moment, to his beloved but almost ruined land.

There is but one way, he holds, to bring about peace and to effect a perfect and permanent cettlement of matters in South Africa.

Your policy must be changed altogether. For fifty years your Government have been composed of pigmy politicians utterly ignorant of statesmanship, whose only policy was to obtain a plurality of votes at the polls and retain votes in your Commons-mere pigmy politicians who would sacrifice all sound principles of good government of a vast world-empire in order to pander to the vanity and vices of the ignorant, drunken, lazy, improvident working classes; to satisfy the sordid greed of your bloated mill-owners and manufacturers and to gratify the wild whims of prurient Puritans, hysterical humanitarians, fanaticalsectarians, and the Empire-destroying demands of rebel dynamitards. These pigmy politicians have made Great Britain to be considered as a gigantic weakness similar to China, not as a great Power similar to France, Russia, and Germany. The time has now come when you must decide to rule Africa with manly firmness or to surrender it firstly to internal anarchy and civil war, and eventually to the strenuous grasp of one of the virile Powers of Europe.

ABANDON CONCILATION AND HANG REBELS. This is the course he advises:-

1. Abandon all conciliation. Hamor and Shechem, remember, tried conciliation, and Simeon and Levi took advantage of it.

2. Proclaim that every man now in arms who does not surrender on or before the first day of September shall be outlawed and all his property confiscated.

3. That all persons who shall take up arms in any of the states or colonies after the date of the proclamation shall be sentenced to death by hanging, and all their property confiscated.

4. That the Constitution of the Cape Colony and Natal be abrogated and a new Constitution formulated by which the rights of citizenship shall be conferred on those only who take the oath of allegiance to the British Empire. Property, educational, and other qualifications for citizenship to be arranged to give the white race due control over the coloured races. Treason and rebellion on the part of citizens to be punishable by hanging and the confiscation of property. '

5. All other unenfranchised residents of the South African Colonies to be termed "subjects" of the British Empire unless registered as "subjects" of foreign Powers or "citizens" of the United States. [Note -If the British Empire is to be really consolidated for all time it is absolutely necessary to substitute the title "citizens" for the fully enfranchised men of Africa, Canada, Australia, Great Britain, &c., for the inferior and slave-like badge of "subjects."]

6. Do justice to the loyal Dutch and British population-to those who have been loyal and to those who prove their loyalty now-compensate them for their losses by the war on equitable terms, but do not treat your enemies better than your friends.

NO MORE "ACCURSED CLEMENCY."

Finally, he says:-Let there be no more of your accurred clemency, your murderous mercy to criminals which you have shown in deference to the disgusting, snivelling, cruel sentimentality of of your sanctimonious and superstitious sectaries who are for ever canting about the sanctity of human life and the criminality of war. Had. you summoned us to surrender after the capture of Komati Poort on pain of death by hanging and confiscation of our property, the war would have been ended and thousands of lives would have been saved, besides untold misery. You have permitted Cape Colony to be ravaged and my property destroyed by a set of murderers, thieves, and incendiaries, when you might easily have prevented it by hanging a few of these criminal lunatics who rebelled when all chance of success was hopeless. Had my advice, given on February 20 last, been acted on, all the forces of Bannerman, Labouchere, the Daily News, and the other members of the sanguinary Peace Party would have been totally unable to prolong the war beyond the end of April last. I can see clearly for myself that the intention of these conciliation-mongers, is, with Machiavellian duplicity and malignancy, to put off the conclusion of peace if possible until the Dutch are exterminated or until we be so weakened that: we must be absorbed and assimilated, even us the English race has absorbed and assimilated the Germans and other races in America and

The Annual Aquatic Sports of the above institution opened yesterday afternoon at the Club's Bath-house at Kowloon. The weather was somewhat dull, but fine, and was on the whole eminently suited to water sports. neat sloping staging had been erected in front of the Clubhouse, capable of seating a large number of spectators, and though many seats were unoccupied at half past four when the sports commenced, these gradually filled up and at the close a very good audience was present The list of events was as under:---

S. R. Moore 0 The course for this event was from the diving stage round a buoy near H.M.S. Wivern and back to the winning post opposite the stand. Only nine of the fourteen entered put in an appearance, and of these one gave up some fifty yards from the start. The rest stuck manfully to their work and a very hard swim they had across a strong tide. Several, including the winner, showed wisdom by keeping well up-tide both going and coming, and thus gained a very material advantage. The finish was a good one, A. A. Alves winning from N. H. of that ilk by about three and a half lengths. Rosa Pereira was a poor third and the rest dribbled in anyhow thoroughly puffed by their long swim. Time -15m. 16sec.

The tide was rather against it too, and some of the competitors drifted back two or three feet before they bobbed up. Others were drifted right round, so that their feet were towards the winning post. Humphreys proved an easy winner, covering 55 ft. 6 in. by a very clean plunge. ANNUAL MEETING.

The twentieth annual general meeting of the Hongkong St. Andrew's Society was held in attendance of some forty Scotsmen, and Hon. T. H. Whitehead, Vice-President (in the plause.) absence from the Colony of the President; Mr. J. McKie), presided.

The Committee's report, which was laid on the table, showed that during the year a number of applications for assistance from the Charitable Fund were received, and after full showed the good judgment of the handicappers. investigation grants-in-aid were given in four cases, amounting in all to $142.80. Situations were found for five more applicants, and three cases were assisted privately by members. The balance now to the credit of the Society is $2,601.28 as against $2,414.60 last year. Fortyfive members (including two life members) joined the Society during the year.

The Chairman said—Gentlemen, before we proceed to the business of the meeting, I beg to offer you my sincere thanks for electing me your Vice-President during my absence in Europe. The Report of your Committee and very much pleasure in proposing him as Vicethe statement of the Society's accounts for the past year having been circulated on 23rd ulto it seems desirable that same should be taken as read. The demands on the Society Charit-For this event there were two post entries, able Fund during the year, as appears from the Report, were small, but considerable asist-ance was rendered in various ways to deserving Scotchmen by members, more particularly by. Messrs. Robert Shewan, J. L. Houston, Wm. Kidd, and others. Already, in the ensuing year 1901-01, your Committee have felt fully justified in disbursing a larger sum from the Charitable Fund than was expended during the past year. One of the chief objects and reasons for the Society's existence is to aid our fellow countrymen who unfortunately may temporarily stand in need of assistance. The finances of the Society on 23rd ult. were slightly better than they were at the same time last year, the net credit balance being $2,601.28 as compared with $2,414.60 for the year 1899-1900. The addition to the membership up to this date has been as great as ever it was in any previous year. St. Andrew's Day, 1900, was celebrated by a Ball, which in every respect was an unqualified success. This was no doubt in a large measure due to the efforts of your energetic and indefatigable President, the genial James McKies who, let us hope, is now enjoying a well-earned respite from business on his native heath' (applause). In consequence of our good Queen's serious illness, the Scotch Concert organised for the 25th January, the anniversary of the birth of Robert Burns, was abandoned, and at half past-six in the evening of Tuesday, 29th January, Queen Victoria, the greatest, kindest, bravest, truest, and best Queen that ever lived, passed away from these earthly scenes to that bourne from whence no traveller returns, mourned by all the peoples of the world. In the prime of manhood, death has claimed four members of this Society-Mr. John Cameron, of the Hongkong Bank, who was Captain of the Rugby Football team here; Mr. A. F. Williamson, of the Chartered Bank, who was a good worker in assisting to make our annual celebration a success; Mr. J. Brownhill, Marine Superintendent of Messrs. Bradley & Co., an old resident in Hongkong, who did yeoman service every year in decorating these rooms; and Captain J. H. Laurie, of the King's Own, Royal Lancaster Regiment, who was a keen supporter of Polo when he resided in the Colony, and who fell in action on active service in South Africa, where many other good, true and worthy sons of Scotland have found a permanent resting place. On leaving Hongkong, Mr. D. R. Crawford, one of the o'dest members of the Society, resigned the duties of Honorary Treasurer, and, in Mr. Peter Dow, I think we have found a worthy successor (applause). The real hard work devolving upon your Committee falls upon and is zealously, with his whole heart and soul, carried out by your industrious and tactful Honorary Secretary, Mr. David Wood, and, while he continues at the helm, the interests of the Society are in safe keeping (applause). Before proposing the adoption of the Report and Accounts, I shall be very happy to answer to the best of my ability any questions which may be put (applause).

Mr. G. W. F. Playfair, after asking a question anent the making up of the accounts, suggested an alteration for next year. Mr. Dow said the accounts were made up in the same form as in previous years, but agreed to the suggestion of Mr. Playfair.

Mr. W. D. Graham then seconded the adop-Mrs. J. T. D'Almada tion of the Report and Accounts, which was carried.

ELECTION OF PRESIDENT. The Hon. I. H. Stewart Lockhart, C.M.G., said: Mr. Chairman and gentlemen, the important and pleasing duty of proposing the election of President of our Society for the ensuing year has devolved upon me, and it is with very great pleasure that I rise to discharge that important duty, especially as, on this occasion, it is a very easy one, as a name I am about to bring before you is a name that will meet universal satisfaction. I have much pleasure in proposing that Mr. Whitehead be elected our President (applause). Mr. Whitehead is so well known to you that it is needless for me to enlarge upon his many good qualities. He has been on the Committee for many years, and last year, was elected our Vice-President. I am sure that the duties of President will be discharged with satisfaction by Mr. Whitehead, and I am sure the motion will be carried with acclamation (applause). Mr. D. R. Law seconded.

Carried. Mr. Whitehead-Fellow Scotsmen, I would. rather that this honourable position had been placed in the hands of one more qualified in many ways to fulfil it than I feel that I possibly can do. Still I thank you most heartily for the high honour which you have conferred upon me and you may rest assured that I will do the. the City Hall on Tuesday evening. There was an . very utmost I possibly can to justify the decision is at which you have unanimously arrived (ap-

W. Robertson (applause). I feel sure that you will agree with me that Mr. Robertson is well qualified for the responsible position of Vice-President of the Hongkong St. Andrew's Society. He has been a member of the Society for a number of years, and, during the past two years, has been an active and hard-working member of the Committee. Personally, 1 think that Mr. Robertson will not only make a good Vice-President, but that, in due course, he will make. an excellent President (applause). ELECTION OF SECRETARY AND TREASURER. Captain G. C. Anderson proposed the election of Mr. David Wood as Secretary and Mr. Peter Dow as Treasurer. Referring to Mr. Wood he 'said they all knew the work he had done in the past, and it was needless for him to say anything. Mr. Brown seconded, remarking that if both gentlemen had sufficiently emphatic burdens upon them lie hought they could vafely look | Barton, Miss'A. C.

THE BALL Mr. R. Shewan, in the course of a few very humorous remarks, proposed that St. Andrews Day be celebrated by a Ball on the same lines as last year (applause).

Mr. T. F. Hough seconded, remarking that everyone who attended last year's Ball was of the one opinion that it was a success.

The Secretary pointed out that St. Andrew's Day this year falls on a Saturday, and they would probably have to make the dance take [place on Friday, the 29th November.

Mr. Shewan altered his motion to this effect, and it was unanimously carried.

THE RETIRING PRESIDENT. Mr. Robertson proposed a hearty vote of thanks to Mr. James McKie for the very valuable services he had rendered. 'Good wine requires no bush,' and it required no eloque at words of his to sound the praises of Mr. McKie. He was known all over the East as the prince of good fellows, and a first-class Scotsman. He (the speaker) thought it would be a graceful thing for the Secretary, on behalf of the Society, to write to Mr. McKie and tell much they thanked him (applause). The Chairman seconded. Every word Mr. Robertson had said had been fully justified by the indefatigable and zealous efforts of Mr McKie when he entered into anything of the

The suggestion was carried unanimously. COMMITTEE.

The members then voted for a Committee Messrs. Cochrane and McMurtrie were appointed tellers, and the result of the voting was that Messrs. D. R. Law, T. F. Hough, R. L. Richardson, W. D. Graham and W. M. Kidd werefelected.

During the counting of the votes, the Chairman said the life of a Society of that kind depended upon the endeavours of its members. The duty devolved upon each member to bring fresh an I new blood into the Society. There were, he believed, quite a number of Scotsmen who had recently arrived in the Colony, and he thought they would be not only doing these new arrivals a benefit but they would also be doing the Society a good turn by asking them to come into the fold of true Scotsmen (applause). He therefore trusted that each member would recollect that he had a duty to perform to the Society and to his fellow Scotsmen who were not members of the Society (applause).

This was all the business, and the meeting terminated with a vote of thanks to the Chairman, proposed by Mr. Stewart Lockhart.

LAUNCH BOILER EXPLODES.

The Foochow Echo of the 31st ulto. says :-The U.S. Cruiser Wilmington, Capt. Prime commanding, arrived at Pagoda Anchorage Kelly from Amoy yesterday morning. As their steam launch, containg five officers and several seamen was coming from the Anchorage to the city, they had just passed the head of Green Island, when an explosion of its boiler occurred. The entire top of the boiler was blown high into the air, but strange to say not a person on board was seriously hurt; save a few scratches | Livingstone, and soiled summer suits no injuries were sustained. The launch was rendered useless for the time being and later in the day was towed back to the vessel at Pagoda. The explosion was heard at Ewo, and other places in the lower part of the settlement, and persons who happened to be looking in the direction of the launch say the boiler head went higher than the top of the masts of a junk near by The cause of the accident has not been deter-

DRINKS UP TO DATE.

contributor to "M.A.P." writes 1-The recent heat-wave has made "long" drinks a necessity. Many are mixed, but only a few are chosen. America is, as usual, our instructor, and the best brews come from the bars of New York. One called "John Collins' is very hard to beat. The actual recipe is a secret, but the compound is delicious union of gin, soda-water, lemon and ice. Another fine thirst-quencher was invented during the last Egyptian compaign and christened "Abu Hamed." The ingredients are, one bottle of soda-water, half a wine-glass of Vermouth and a small quantity of Angostura bitters Yet another "soul-refresher" is called "Number One." Contents unknown, and perhaps better mot inquired for-it has the sound of a secret society.1

Every restaurant has its special prescription for "cocktails," "pick-m ups," and "eyeopeners," and some smart houses pride themselves on similar concactions. Many wellknown men have forsworn alcohol for luncheon and drink gallons of iced lemonade, gingerboer, and barley-water, Indeed, this may be called the Age of Ice, for what was once a luxury has become a necessity. Apollinaria water, seitzer-everything must be iced. For once Fashion is on the side of the angels, and amant men have declared for temperance.

THE NEW FRENCH REMEDY.

This successful and highly popular remedy, as employed in the Continental Hospitals-by Ricord, Rostan, Johant, Velpeau, and others combines all the desiderata to be sought ima medicine of the kind, and surpasses everything hitherto employed.

THERAPION No. 1, in a few days only, removes all discharges from the urinary organs offectually superseding injections, the use of which does irreparable harm by laying the foundation of stricture and other serious diseases. In dysentery, piles, irritation of the lower bowel, cough, bronchitis, asthma, and some of the more trying complaints of thi kind, it will be found astonishingly efficacious, affording prompt relief, where other well-tri remedies have been powerless. THERAPION No. 2; for impurity of the blood, scurvy, pimples, spots, blotches, pains and swellings of the joints, secondary symptoms, disease of the bones, sore throat, and al diseases for which it has been too much fashion to employ mercury, sarsaparilla, &c., to the destruction of the sufferer's teeth and rui of health. This proparation purifies the whole system through the blood, and throughly eliminates every poisonous matter from the THERAPION No. 3, for nervous exhaustion, waste of vitality, and all the distressing consequences arising from early error, excess, residence in hot, unhealthy climates, &c. . It posseses surprising power in restoring strength and vigour to the debilitated, THERAPION may be procured of the principal Chemists and Merchants throughout the world. Price in England 2/9 and 4/6. In order ing, the purchaser should state which of the three numbers he requires, and observe that the word "THERAPION" appears' on the Government, Stamp (in white letters on a red ground) affixed to every genuine package by order of Her Majesty's Hon. Commissioners, and without which it is a forgery.

By Mrs. OSCAR BERINGER.

THE SUPERFLUOUS WOMAN. This is a question of supreme and vital importance to the individual woman and the State. The superfluous woman is a quantity which even the most conservative myope amongst'us can no longer deny. Her lamentable superfluity has been recognised, and in greater or lesser degree, according to the customs of the country to which she belongs, certain channels of employment have been opened to her. Public opinion allows her to live alone, without any imputation of malice prepense. Locomotion has been made cheap and easy for her. She is comfortably catered for at various tariffs, and sympathetically considered as a definite human unit. In fact, her economic importance is established. She is, moreover-greatest advance of all of which we women have yet to learn how to avail ourselves fully-credited with the necessity for play, and without which Jenny infallibly becomes a very dull girl indeed. So far, so excellent. And it may be taken as read that these excellent conditions have satisfactorily disposed of a decade of femining superfluity. FREE FROM DOMESTICITY.

We are now faced by the situation that we have taught and made it pleasant for a large body of women to lead a life entirely free from, and unhampered by, home ties. superfluous woman, by, force of her superfluity, knows as little of the endless and inevitable sacrifices as of the joys of the wife and mother. She is, in fact, if she is a successful superfluity, self-centred and self-sufficing, with a completeness neither attained nor sought after by her bachelor brother. The fact of her having remained superfluous demonstrates her lack of charm for, or her not having tried to attract, the strong half of the world, i.e., that she is primarily deficient in the qualities which eventually lead to the desire of a woman to have a child, the gift of the man she loves. These are the superfluous women. MODERN MEN'S WOMEN.

We will now consider the women who are not superfluous, who attract, and also who are sought in union by men. We will first turn to that "woman's land," America, where the reproach of superfluity has never found entry, and whose manners and customs we are so freely adopting. No more pithy or striking definition of the American woman can be found than in Paul Bourget's. "Outre Mer." In addition to the keen observation of a professional analyst of women, we reap the advantage of the vivid impression produced upon a Frenchman by a freedom un known to his unmarried countrymen. " Not a hotel, not a bank, not a public building where they do not go in and out as independently, as much a law to themselves as men can be ! " he exclaims, and is evidently equally astounded at the habit of equality between the "two sexes. He is so bold as to say when he talks of the woman of to-day as a " living orchid," an "unexpected masterpiece of this civilisation" it is possible that there are men who could dispense with " living orchids" like this in their "button holes." This woman of to-day can do without being loved. She has no need of being loved. What she symbolises is neither sensuality nor tenderness She is like a living object of art, the last fine work of human skill, attesting that the Yankee, but yesterday despairing, vanquished by the Old World, has been able to draw from this

AMERICAN INFLUENCE. It is undeniable that the whole face of society, and our daily lives, is becoming more and more Americanised hour by hour. Or shall we call it Enfranchised? Girls of the lower middle class, dismounted from their "bykes," chat at street corners of the "lovely. time" they've had. Girls of the upper middle class compare their "lovely times" at the Carlton, Prince's, Claridge's, and Ranelagh. Modern womanhood demands her "lovely times" as her right, a priori, of existence, and if she can't command them she takes the next best substitute-work, in whatever groove her inclination and ability may lead her. Her ego is complete "a whole little universe," and her physique is excellent, thanks to the improved physiological and hygienic knowledge of the generation of women who preceded her. She | dangerous swallowing feats is not known. never looks back, like the old maid in the early forties of the last century. "My dear, we should get on splendidly if there were no men and babies in the world." Modern woman does get on splendidly-without them.

HOW ABOUT THE WOMEN TO COME?. I have now broadly indicated the conditions Apply by Letter, stating experience and of the superfluous and the appropriated women, and the most inveterate grumbler can hardly boast a grievance on their behalf. But how are we to account for the steady and alarming de-[935c] Hongkong, 4th September, 1901. [970c] the disternal mutinet? Free Lance.

MATRIMONIAL ENTERPRISE.

AMERICAN MARRIAGE BROKER IN LONDON. The American Colony in London, which increases by hundreds annually, is deeply interested at present in the latest form of Ameri can enterprise now beginning operations in London. According to a home paper, this is the establishment of a matrimonial agency for the purpose of bringing poor titled young gentlemen, members of the English aristocm cy, into the society of rich young American ladies, who, having no need to marry for money, would vastly prefer to "love a lord" and marry him. So strong has this ambition become among American heiresses that a well-known New York marriage broker has taken a suite of rooms in a West-end hotel so as to be on the spot for matrimonial business. He is confident that Anglo-American nuptial alliance can be most mentality. Discussing the matter with a representative of the press the marriage broker was very candid, claiming that his vocation was alike legitimate and acceptable to eligible parties on either side the Atlantic. Nor would he confine his operations to Great Britain. He would go afield into all countries that boast an most attention to the English peerage.

There was, he said, nothing more patent to his firm than that poor peers are willing to marry wealthy Yankee girls of good family. It imspeakably filthy. The attendance was utterwas equally certain that thousands of heires in the States are dreaming night and day of winning titles for themselves. In these circumstances everything ought to be done to bring the young people together. It would even serve high political purpose, binding together by family ties the aristocracy of the dollar and the aristocracy of blood. But, as the American matchmaker pointed out, it is a very delicate undertaking, and must be conducted with the utmost tact, and in the utmost privacy. His method could not be divulged farther than to say that "it is all quite easy when you know the way. :Ocean or Mediterranean voyages offer the ideal opportunities. No place like the deck of ship for facilitating engagements."

Both parties to a successful match will pay the negotiator a commission—the husband in proportion to the income brought to him, and the wife a fixed rate for the title she acquires.

"HUMAN OSTRICH."

One of the most remarkable operations for the removal of foreign bodies from the stomach was recently performed at the Rebecca Hospital in St. Louis. Only fifty-eight cases in a period of 185 years are on record as having been operated on. Most of these have been lunatics, fakirs, and professionals who swallowed the objects for money. The long continued presence of foreign articles in the stomach by their weight, size and form produces hindrances of nutrition, inflammation and other serious symptoms, eventually ending in exhaustion and death. The case in question was that of a showman, aged twenty-two who termed himself the "Human Ostrich." He had followed the business of swallowing glass, metals and other objects at private and public exhibitions for a number of years. The accumulation of these bodies finally produced acute pains, which caused the patient to present himself at the hospital for relief. The question as to whether the articles were in the stomach or had shifted elsewhere being a very important one from an operative standpoint, it was decided to determine their exact locations by means of the X-rays. A "shadowgraph" was, therefore, made, by which a dark spot some five to six inches in diameter was clearly outlined in the stomach. Having located the mass, the operation was proceeded with. The following articles were taken out: Thirty-seven one and two-inch wire fence nails, twenty-seven barbed wire ience staples, twenty-one 0'32 and 0.38 calibre cartridges, two pocket-knife blades, fifteen one and two-inch screws, six two-inch horseshoe nails, fifty-one wire nails, one half to two inches long, a piece of chain eight inches in length, besides pieces of glass and broken lamp chimneys. The whole mass weighed over two pounds, and is said to be the greatest amount of foreign objects ever taken from the stomach of a living person. The time of the operation was one hour. The man recovered in a few days, and whether he resumed his

The Grande Chartreuse, I read, says the writer of "Asterisks" in a recent Pall Mall, has sold the right of purveying its famous liqueurs to a syndicate. SERIOUS CHARGES AGAINST FRENCH QUARANTINE AUTHORITIES.

The Daily Mail's correspondent at Marseilles, writing on the 18th ulto., says .- The passengers from the Laos, who have been in expeditiously arranged through his instru- quarantine at Frioul for eleven days, were set free this morning, and arrived at the Quai Joliette at seven. They numbered 317, including 100 soldiers. Among the passengers were several English people, who by universal consent behaved admirably.

One of the quarantined Englishmen said that the anti-plague serum only lasted until aristocracy of title, though naturally paying the fifth day. The living arrangements for the passengers, both first and second class; at Frioul were deplorable. The whole place was disgustingly dirty, and the mattresses and beds ly inadequate. The accommodation was so inadequate that a shameful struggle ensued at the landing. The strongest got the best rooms, and women and children had to go without. One old woman had to serve the occupants of twenty-four rooms. There was no drinkable water, and everything was terribly, dear. The sanitary officers arrived on Tuesday, forty-eight hours after the Laos passengers had been landed. There were absolutely no amusements, and the food was distinctly bad.

Colonel Gooselin, who commended the French troops on the Laos, has written to the Minister of Marine protesting against the defective organisation at Frioul, and the British victims also openly uttered strong protests and complaints against their treatment. Many of the passengers who arrived at Frioul in good health left the island to-day physically much the worse for their experiences. When the boat was taking off the passengers this morning a large consignment of medicine, toilet requisites and mineral waters, which would have been invaluable a week ago, were sent off from
